NSM announces Interim Director of Security Services & Headquarters Relocation

27.December.2007 – Detroit, Michigan - Americas' National Socialist Party, the National Socialist Movement (NSM) today announced their new Interim Director of Security Services as SS Sgt. Connelly. "Connelly has been a valuable asset to the Party for many years and has shown excellent ability in his role as a Security Services probate earlier this year and has shown excellent time management skills as he juggles a full time job while handling not only his position as New York chapter director but keeping tabs on the entire North East as NSM Northeast Group Director", stated a liaison from NSM Headquarters. "We will see how Connelly does at his new position and consider him for a permanent appointment likely during our annual Party Congress which at we announce yearly promotions as well as other Party business.", stated NSM Commander Jeff Schoep. Cmd Jeff Schoep further stated, "The Party will consider a possible replacement for the Northeast Director position pending a permanent appointment of Connelly as NSM Security Services Director."

The National Socialist Movement is aggressively strengthening the organisation with mandatory leadership requirements including mandatory training seminars and other measures designed to increase the level of efficiency across the board.

Earlier this month the NSM announced the promotion of Master Sergeant Kristopher Johnson to the position of North Central Regional Group Director in addition to his position as NSM Minister of Radio and the NSM Wisconsin State Chapter Director. "Kris has shown to be an excellent leader and has been a great grassroots activist for the NSM...", stated NSM Commander Jeff Schoep.

Charles Wilson has been appointed the new Director of the NSM Storm Department (SD) also known at as the "Stormtroops". The NSM SD is molded in part after the National Socialist German Workers Party "Sturmabteilung" or SA which translates to "Storm Department". Much like the Party's predecessor, the NSM Storm Department is tasked with keeping peace at public meetings and protecting the Party members at various functions. "Charles has been an asset since he joined the Party and has shown exceptional leadership skills ... his appointment will place a very charismatic individual to a position that needs exceptional people skills which is something Charles excels at" stated NSM Commander Jeff Schoep.

In addition to the above NSM personnel changes the Party announced that as of today they have relocated their main offices to Detroit Michigan and stated that all correspondence should be sent to a new address:
