By Commander Jeff Schoep

We have so many announcements and progress to report on within the NSM it is difficult to know where to start. The White Pride America site and operations have been merged into the NSM. NSM Britannia is working diligently to return programming and shows to the radio waves, and programs will be available again shortly. Anyone interested in running a U.S. based radio show for the NSM.

NSM Australia has officially formed up, and we also have new contact points in New Hampshire and Idaho. The growth of the Party continues at an unprecedented rate! The NSM has acquired property in North Dakota. Anyone serious about getting solid work in ND and is willing to relocate there for work contact me!

The BBC from the U.K. was recently on a separate patrol with the NSM in the Southwest in June for a documentary to be shown in the U.K. Interviews with Commander Schoep also appeared in Omerta Hellas, a Greek based NS/Combat 18 magazine, and a separate interview was conducted by a U.S. based NS site. We thank, salute, and appreciate the solidarity shown by our Comrades in Greece, the U.S., and worldwide from other groups that have taken their time out to interview and feature the work of the NSM in their publications, it was an honor for us.

Here in Detroit we have attended several motorcycle events and set up booths to promote the NSM, and NSM88 Records. Things went very well, and we met many, many good people. This can, is, and should be replicated around the Nation.

The NSM is what you, the member, supporter, or prospect makes it! Do not expect anyone else to build this Party. It is an honor to serve alongside of you all in this fight!

NSM TO RALLY AGAINST ILLEGAL IMMIGRATION AND ANTI-WHITE CRIME IN CHARLOTTE, NC

Jeff Schoep (pronounced “SCOOP”), Commander of the National Socialist Movement (NSM -- NSM88.ORG) announced today that his organization will hit the streets of Charlotte, North Carolina in protest against illegal immigration and crime.

On Saturday, November 10th, 2012, at 3pm (ET) the National Socialist Movement will host its annual November Rally in Charlotte, NC. This event is open to all known white patriots. The focus will be against illegal immigration, the concern for failing U.S. (and global) economies, as well other critical issues. There will be numerous speakers and groups in attendance. NSM representatives or other organizations who are interested in speaking at this event contact command staff immediately. Following the rally, there will be a meet-and-greet for media, and a private social gathering and after-party for participants.

SS Sgt. F. Cook, NSM Regional Director for the area, explains that “North Carolina was chosen for the rally, because illegal immigration has increased dramatically in a part of America where no one would have expected it.”

Commander Schoep adds, “You might expect the National Socialist Movement to rally against anti-White issues in the Southeast, but illegal immigration is pulling all classes of people into a downwards economic spiral. However, rest assured that we’re not going to ignore the issue of crimes against White people, either,” he adds.

The National Socialist Movement is the largest pro-White civil rights organization in America. It has chapters across America, and affiliates around the world.
Dear NSM Party Members & Supporters,

Let me begin by stating that most of you (fellow NSM brothers and sisters) have never seen a fundraising letter sent by myself, and in fact, the last fundraising letter the National Socialist Movement even sent out was approximately four or five years ago.

Many groups hammer their membership constantly with fundraising letters, begging for money to operate, to point of being overbearing. The NSM has never operated that way, and we do not intend to. I am personally sending this letter to remind our membership that when you signed up you agreed to our minimum donation of $10 per month to the NSM to help us with our operating expenses. I am not going to give you all a sales pitch as to why you should be sending that in, and how it's only a few pennies a day to support your party. This very small minimum donation is critical to our Party, and this letter is to let everyone know that if you are holding an NSM patch, or is a probate within our Organization that we EXPECT you to honor your minimum monthly donation to our party! You can send it in yearly, monthly, or whatever works best for you.

I am sending out this appeal after looking over our monthly financial records and seeing how many Party expenses I and several others have personally funded from our own businesses, due to lack of funds within the NSM itself. The Party is generous, and we want to help where we can to assist with gas for carpools to major events, as has been done often in the past, however we cannot realistically keep up at the current and past pace if we lack the critical funding we need to operate. We have the largest NS Group in the United States. If everyone just put in the minimum, there would not even be a need to send a letter like this out. I am embarrassed to write this to you all, and have held off on writing this letter for many years. I do not like asking ANYONE for help, and despise talking about money and funding, because it sounds Jewish.

The facts are the facts, and we do need funding to operate, so consider this a reminder and a warning. The NSM expects everyone to chip in on the minimum monthly donation. If you do not wish to remain within our Party send us a letter returning your patch, along with a request to release you from your Oath, and we will release you from our ranks. The only exceptions to the monthly minimum donation are those approved for hardship waivers for those out of work who cannot assist, or lifetime members.

Let me end this letter by thanking all of you who are doing your part. Your continued support is critical to our Party, and we salute you all for your efforts.

Respectfully,

Commander Jeff Schoep
Our ongoing operations to observe, report and to indirectly disrupt drug and human smuggling have been very successful. Due to a poor economy, we see fewer farm workers attempting to cross the border, but an increase in gang/drug related activities. Most of what’s coming up from south of the border is very bad, to say the least. The National Socialist Movement is there to stop it.

During the month of March 2012, 26 sex offenders were apprehended at the Mexican border attempting to enter the United States. Those are just the ones that tried to enter at ports of entry. We have no idea how many dangerous criminals enter by jumping the fence, if there’s a fence to even jump. Much of our southern border is unprotected.

On Saturday, January 7, 2012 a recon team quietly punched out to the Sonoran Desert National Monument area south of Interstate 8 in advance of multiple large border operations scheduled for the end of the month. Volunteers will be arriving in force. We have put many exhausting hours into this project and for at least three days, parts of southern Arizona will be safer than ever.

From Friday, January 27-29, 2012, members and supporters of the National Socialist Movement conducted Operation Heimdallr along the Vekol Valley drug corridor south of Interstate 8 in the Sonoran Desert National Monument. During this same time period, The US Border Guard conducted Operation Midnight Star. Both organizations cooperated and successfully kept drug and human smugglers from exploiting our nation’s public lands.

Once our camp was erected, we commenced patrols. It didn’t take long to discover signs of illegal aliens. I found a flashlight and a mop-like thing that was apparently used to brush away footprints in an attempt to foil the US Border Patrol. As usual, we also found lots of clothing, backpacks, personal items and footprints.
We discovered the remains of a horse that was more than likely used to transport bales of marijuana from Mexico. Once the contraband is picked up, the horse is no longer needed and is simply left to die in the desert. Note: On previous patrols, live horses were found and showed signs of serious abuse.

Early Saturday evening, I received a call from a US Border Guard volunteer who was operating in an area approximately 20 miles away from our base camp. He was requesting assistance at their location because a party of several illegal aliens was detected. We dropped everything and rapidly sent two vehicles with a well armed squad to their location.

While we were in route to intercept the illegals, a US Border Patrol unit pulled up and asked for a status update. It soon became obvious that our familiarity with the area would become very important. We guided the Border Patrol agents to the area in question. After wards, they thanked us for the assistance. The US Border Patrol also dispatched a helicopter to this remote desert location.

A female illegal alien was picked up for processing and deportation by the Border Patrol. Her traveling companions abandoned her out in the middle of nowhere to fend for herself. All she had were the clothes on her back. No water. No nothing. This sort of thing is nothing new to us. It’s common for smugglers to sacrifice their own. They can always get more Mexicans.

Volunteers from Arizona, California, Georgia, Oregon and Colorado helped make our southern border more secure than ever. I’m very pleased to report that Operation Heimdallr was a success. Follow up operations continued during the week as there were still some UDAs outstanding. YouTube Report: http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=AnBskMWXZEs&list=UU9KrabMIJYWTaWWdnR4xYQ&index=1&feature=plcp

This illegal alien was found wondering along Interstate 8. He had a gallon jug containing a brown liquid he was using as water. He was in rather bad shape. I called the US Border Patrol and a unit responded in less than half an hour.

Women’s Division member Thora Jaeger, K-9 Bailey and myself spent Thursday (February 16, 2012) afternoon monitoring the Vekol Valley Drug corridor and picked up trash left behind by quite a few less than considerate B.L.M. public land users. An unmaintained dirt road passes northward from Interstate 8 through the Vekol Valley to SR 238. It's not all that uncommon for drug and human smugglers to take this out of the way route. It easy to get to Maricopa or Gila Bend via this primitive road.

As usual, dedicated members and supporters of the National Socialist Movement are the eyes and ears in the “Contested Zone” of western Pinal County. The north end of Vekol Valley attracts more recreational users than the area south of Interstate 8. We found large quantities of trash in need of collecting. There is more waiting for us the next time we return. We have collected and recycled 4645 pounds of trash, thus far in 2012. The local recycling center pays us cash for most of the items and we use the proceeds to conduct future operations.

On Thursday, April 5, 2012, I assisted some friends in recovering a "load vehicle from the BLM land west of Hidden Valley, not too far from my home. The GMC Yukon was hidden is a wash and it turned out to be stolen. The Pinal County Sheriff’s Office was notified and a deputy responded to take possession of the vehicle. YouTube report:

On April 6, 2012, I departed for a three day trip to the Barry M Goldwater Range south of Welton, AZ for a recon of the area including the Tinajas Altas and Gila Mountains. For three days, there was no excitement or incidents. We made contact with the Border Patrol several times Friday morning and they informed us that the area was “hot.” I discovered some old illegal alien sign on Saturday afternoon. All I found was a backpack and a disposable razor. They were deteriorated and had been there for quite some time.

Early Easter Sunday (5:30AM), I decided to break camp and make my way into Welton, which was north of my location to stock up on ice. I encountered some loose sand and found myself stuck and unable to continue on my excursion to town. I was in the middle of the Cipriano Pass. Due to the holiday weekend and the remoteness of my location, I knew I would be there for a while before somebody would happen along. YouTube Report:

Although my trip was planned for three days, I had at least a week's worth of food and water on board my vehicle. I also had all of my "battle gear" and extra ammunition, in the event I encountered hostile elements. All travelers in Arizona (or anywhere) should always have extra water and something to eat with them. People can and do become stranded. So, be prepared. Stay alive!

On Tuesday night (April 9, 2012), a cold front moved in and I experienced strong winds. My tent took a beating and finally broke under the stress. Since it wasn't very cold, I simply placed my foam pad, sleeping bag and pillow on top of the remains of my tent and went back to sleep, until the F-15 fighters above started making noise and dropped bright flares. I kept a flashlight and my AR-15 handy in the event I had any nocturnal visitors. I eventually went back to sleep after the planes went away.

Sometime after midnight, canine Bailey began barking at something to the north of my position. I shined my light in that direction and heard a voice. A couple of hikers emerged. I informed them of my situation. They marked my GPS location and continued on their journey. They told me that they would notify somebody once they had a signal.

On Wednesday morning, I took a rope, an 8'x10' tarp, and parts from my tent, and constructed a temporary shelter. The tarp was one of the items contained in the pack I set up for that search and rescue class I took last fall at Mesa Community College. By this time, people on the "home front" reported me missing and called authorities. Not long after constructing the shelter, a Border Patrol helicopter was spotted flying to the north of my location.

About an hour later, I heard a vehicle approaching and actually recognized it. Friends from multiple groups, including the US Border Guard and the Sonorant Desert Patrol arrived at my location and promptly extracted my vehicle from the wash. We broke camp and departed the area.

If you happen to become stranded, never leave the vicinity of your vehicle. Situations like this might be a little inconvenient, but they never should be fatal. Of course, the hiker I dropped off on Friday morning beat me home.
After a two week hiatus, I returned to the field on Wednesday, May 9, 2012. I worked the area near Smith Road and Interstate 8. After just 20 minutes, I discovered several sets of fresh foot prints. Unfortunately, those subjects appeared to be long gone. Once illegal aliens make it to the interstate, they are picked up and transported to drop houses in Phoenix, where they are often held for ransom.

A couple of hours later, we arrived at an abandoned cattle watering tank and discovered that somebody tried to extract water from a dry well using a cut off bottle that was weighted with a rock tied to a piece of wire. All too often, illegal aliens find themselves out in the middle of nowhere dying of thirst. During interviews of those we do find, they tell us that they’ve been out in the desert for an average of eight days. Unfortunately, drug and human smuggling is a year round business.

FAMOUS 'BEFORE' AND 'AFTER' PHOTOS

A group of elite U.S. Marines was seen posing in front of an SS flag in Afghanistan some time ago. They received lots of flack from the brainwashed masses. To respect their privacy, we have shaded their eyes and faces. This is the ‘before’ photo.

As our Party continues to press forward in our efforts to reclaim this nation we feel at this time it is necessary to do more than merely criticize the system and the Party power structure currently in place and present to the public how we would actually set out to accomplish our goals of restoring America to its preeminent status as the world’s unquestionable superpower. We have the unshakable belief that in order for this goal to be met that the preservation of the European-American majority is absolutely essential to this endeavor as the Western Europeans have proven themselves to be the only Race capable of building the types of civilized modern urban societies that will allow us the opportunity to maximize the opportunities bestowed upon us by our Founding Fathers.

The safe and orderly conditions that must exist in order for our people to reap the benefits conferred upon us by the sacrifices of our Founding Fathers cannot be realized within a multicultural nation as anyone that takes an objective look based purely on the statistics will be forced to agree that as the percentage of non White minorities increases the standards of living has decreased for the White majority. In short, the experiment of multiculturalism has failed. In just the past year, leaders all across the European Union have declared a multicultural society has failed in Europe and it will fail in America as well. Therefore our Party utterly rejects the policies of racial integration which is the gateway drug to Regional consolidation followed by the surrender of National sovereignty to the global Super state.

We instead embrace wholeheartedly the concept spelled out so clearly by the Founding Fathers when they declared, "Trade with all, entangling alliances with none." We reject the notion that we must tie our economy to other nations by treaties and unions and declare we can carry on normal trade relations with all nations with none of the downside of being tied to them by these "Free Trade" and "Fair Trade" agreements that make even our Senate subservient to International Law which was clearly the intent of the Founding Fathers when this declaration was made.

When America followed the course so clearly laid out by the Founding Fathers we were prosperous and the envy of the world. As we have deviated from this course we have all borne witness as our economy continues to decay, our status as the world’s leading superpower is in jeopardy or gone, our educational standards have become a joke, and we are now in the position of being the first generation in the history of this great nation that will pass on as it’s legacy to the next generation a declining standard of living. As National Socialists we believe that the primary function of the government is to make sure that the conditions necessary for the culture that created the nation to flourish are met. It is above all things the first and foremost consideration of our Congress to see these conditions met. The policies of 'globalism' and 'internationalism' have led us down the road to ruin and a return to Nationalist policies are the only hope we have of regaining our place superiority in the global arena. We agree that what happens around the world affects us also but only in the degree that we allow it.

One of the primary reasons we are in debt today is the fact that working class America has been taxed to support failed Third World nations around the globe and the American taxpayers are the guarantors of debt all around the planet. With our ability to pay our own debts and rampant unemployment, a crumbling infrastructure, and even the ability to secure our own borders against foreign invaders we feel it is past time for Congress to choose a path of fiscal responsibility and do the job they were entrusted to do or face the consequences of the American people at the polls. Under the current economic now in place, the two parties envision America as a service and distribution hub for the world with our manufacturing base being outsourced to other nations.

This is unacceptable because it is these factories that produce materials that support our war efforts in time of crisis. We reject completely Senator McCain’s statement that these jobs are gone and are not coming back. We reject Obama’s statement that ten percent unemployment may be the new norm just because it is that way in India. If our politicians would do their job and look after American interests first, we can turn this situation around very quickly. The doctrine of National Socialism worked to reverse a horrible economic situation in Germany in the 1930's and these and true principles will work here as well.

One will notice that our entire economic model is a manufacturing based model, which has traditionally provided the highest standard of living for the working middle class. The second is our emphasis on welfare to work programs in which citizens must be made to work in order to eat if that is what is necessary to break the cycle of cradle to grave Welfare in America. Also central in our plan is the immediate repatriation of all persons to the country of origin that entered this nation illegally since the last Reagan era amnesty. Then by removing redundant Federal programs and withdrawing the military from around the planet and instituting sound monetary policy here at home we arrive at a level of spending that we feel will be far more acceptable and to the advantage of the American taxpayer.
This year's current Federal budget proposal by the two Parties comes in at about $3.8 trillion dollars. We would like at this time to give to the American public a list of action items and some specific details of our proposed cuts and let them decide whether the current budget and policies would be better or worse for them and the nation as a whole.

Item One: An immediate end to all but the most essential in foreign aid. It is a disgrace that we have homeless and hungry people here in America and yet we continue to send money out of this nation to other countries, many of whom hate us and work actively at the subversion of our nation. Israeli citizens alone receive annually about $26,000 for every man woman and child in the country, not including military and indirect assistance. An additional $4 billion was given to Mexico to help it enforce security on its southern border but Congress cannot find $800 million to finish a section of OUR border. The Global Poverty Act, signed by then Senator Barack Obama will cost the American taxpayers nearly $850 billion, larger than the first TARP bailout and the American public is largely ignorant of the fact that this bill even exists. Our estimated savings to the American public for cutting foreign aid? $100 billion annually.

Item Two: Welfare-to-work programs. All able-bodied Welfare recipients must be working immediately. It is essential that all able bodied citizens below retirement age must be productive. We should not be paying for road maintenance and infrastructure repairs when we have citizens capable of doing the work collecting a check from the state for doing nothing. Also mandatory drug screening for all Welfare recipients. In our model, everyone that needs help will receive it, the infirm and retirement age and our military veterans but all able bodied citizens must work. No free rides! Estimated savings - $170 billion annually.

Item Three: According to the Cato Institute an estimated $100 billion can be saved annually by eliminating government domestic subsidies. The largest areas are energy, education and agriculture. We should not be subsidizing farmers NOT to produce. The NEA (National Education Association) should be disbanded immediately and this responsibility should be returned to the states. All subsidies in energy except for the research into alternative fuel sources should cease. National Socialist scientist and Engineers are currently working on extracting pollution free Hydrogen from water and feel we will have this solved in the next few years. Our systems are on demand Hydrogen, meaning there is nothing but water in the fuel tank of your vehicle thus eliminating the need for specialized fueling points. We should immediately promote the increase of domestic exploration and refining capabilities. The mere threat of this will immediately lower fuel costs to consumers here. We have a strong commitment to 'green' technology but insist that we can utilize American natural resources and still be responsible stewards of the planet. Estimated savings - $100 billion annually.

Item Four: An immediate repatriation of ALL peoples that have entered this nation illegally and for which the American taxpayers are now burdened with the fiscal and social costs of having these criminals here. Estimated savings - $100 billion annually and an additional $40 billion annually injected back into the economy that is currently being sent directly out of the country now that we get no ripple effect or job creation.

Item Five: Suspend interest payments to the Fed. Since the Fed has Unconstitutionally usurped power from the American people and has set itself up as the supreme power in the nation today, making it impossible for us to get an audit, we can only estimate but it is believed that American taxpayers paid out last year about $378 billion in interest to the Fed. By the way, they have never paid a penny in income taxes and have an art collection estimated at $400 million in their offices.

Item Six: Redundant Programs: By eliminating these we can save an estimated $10 billion annually. On the top of the list are eliminating the Dept. of Homeland Security, dramatically downsizing the IRS, abolishing the EPA, and eliminating the NEA.

Item Seven: Withdrawing all U.S troops except in the most strategic areas of the world. Many troops can be brought home and redeployed to our own southern border. so we get at home with no added cost to the tax payer as well as the ripple effect of salaries that will be spent here. The war in Afghanistan is not in the Federal budget proposal and is funded by emergency spending measures at a cost of about $90 million a year. Estimated savings - $290 billion a year.

In summary, our proposed budget trims nearly one third of the total federal budget for the fiscal year and brings the budget down from $3.8 trillion dollars to $2.6 trillion. Please note that these are real numbers achieved by real cuts, not the smoke and mirrors game played by the current Parties where they tell America they are cutting the budget but in reality are only slowing the GROWTH of the budget. We have not touched ANY entitlement spending such as Social Security, Medicare, Medicaid, Union benefits, did not raise the retirement age, have not asked you to accept painful austerity measures and best of all, no one’s taxes went up. The choice is clear and the choice is yours.

We can continue down the same path or we can set the course of fiscal responsibility and fix the problems created by the Globalists in the Government. We believe America is the greatest nation in the world and it is certainly worth the effort to save it as well as the White Race that created it.
White Pride America has decided to merge with the National Socialist Movement. This historic unification will allow each party to forge forward with the combined mutual resources and power of each group.

While White Pride America is coming onboard NSM’s White Civil Rights Organization, Commander Schoep has already assured WPA staff and members that their venture will NOT lose nor compromise their likewise uniquely White worldview. However, there will be a few minor changes in the groups’ media properties. For example, in deference to White Pride America, NSM’s, National Socialist Movement magazine will be re-titled, NSM Magazine, while WPA’s publication, Amerika Erwache has become, America Awaken!"

According to F. Cook, NSM’s Assistant Chief Of Staff, and current chair of WPA, "White Pride America is extremely elated at the historic merger with the National Socialist Movement. This merger will mutually benefit both parties, as well as the whole of the white nationalist and National Socialist struggles through our combined efforts. The WPA site and our flagship magazine have always supported the NSM in its work and now as an official affiliate and part of the NSM family, can double our efforts."

We are also pleased to announce the formation of a Motorcycle Club affiliated with the National Socialist Movement. We have been working with and affiliate with various clubs around the U.S. and worldwide for some time now. On July 25th, 2012 we officially announced the formation of the Anhanger SS MC (http://www.anhangerssmc.com).

The Anhanger SS MC is affiliated with The National Socialist Movement and is expanding its ranks even as we write this. Those interested in being a part of the Anhanger SS MC may contact them via their website.

While the NSM endorses the Anhanger SS MC, however, we work with many other Clubs and will add them to our official affiliates as time permits, and alliances forged.

Any other Clubs seeking Alliances with the National Socialist Movement should contact Jeff Schoep, Commander of the NSM, at: commander@newsaxon.org.

We are pleased to announce this to our membership and supporters, as we expand our ranks and embrace continued forward progress in the National Socialist Movement.
Not long ago, an unnamed campaign staffer for Mitt Romney made what became a needlessly controversial remark. With the 2012 Olympics being held in London, the Romney campaign felt that the event – as well as Romney’s Western European heritage – could help foster even more positive relations between America and the United Kingdom.

The staffer was quoted as saying: “We are part of an Anglo-Saxon heritage, and he [Romney] feels that the...relationship is special.” Predictably, the Obama Administration condemned the remark, suggesting that it was ‘racist’ in nature.

While the National Socialist Movement has not been endorsing ANY candidate for the United States Presidency at during the 2012 election, we are forced to make an important observation.

The condemnation of the Romney-campaign’s ‘Anglo-Saxon remark’ by the Obama Administration emphasizes how it is continuing to concentrate on less-important issues ‘of-color,’ instead of concentrating on more important economic and social issues. Frankly, Obama’s dismissal of what is essentially an innocent compliment to our UK ‘cousins’ is racially offensive to me as an Anglo-Saxon. It’s not innocuous – it’s insulting!” American politicians should not resist using the term, ‘Anglo-Saxon,’ as it is a significant part of the rich heritage of the United States, as well as many other countries around the world.
According to Jeff Schoep, Commander of the National Socialist Movement, the decision of the United States Supreme Court to uphold a key element of Arizona’s strict immigration law is a victory for his White civil rights group. “The Court’s agreement with the ability of police to check on peoples’ immigration status while enforcing other laws proves without a doubt that we have been correct in our efforts. We have made people aware around the world that every country has the right to secure its own borders. And the fact that in the United States, many White Americans have become concerned about preserving this right makes this issue even more important,” according to Schoep.

The controversial law known as SB 1070 was signed into law by Arizona Governor Janice Brewer on April 23, 2010. Sections of the measure were later put on hold by District Court Justice Susan Bolton. However, the law found itself to be heard by the Supreme Court in a relatively short amount of time.

Even mainstream political pundits in the media acknowledge that the “America First” rallies in Phoenix, Los Angeles, Las Vegas, and elsewhere across the nation have been one of the forces increasing the fervor of the dialogue, even in light of pro-illegal immigration counter-protests that had become almost vulgar in tone.

Most of those protesting against the immigration law took one of two paths. Some detractors focused on the supposed inhumanity of what are essentially criminals to continue their crime of illegally immigrating and to stay in America. Other detractors of the law went towards the speculative possibility of ‘racial profiling’ of those stopped by law enforcement once the law was passed.

However, according to Harry Hughes, spokesman for the Arizona unit of NSM who has seen human smuggling first-hand, it was enough to make up his mind. “Not only are they coming to this country illegally, the smugglers, or ‘coyotes,’ care more for money, and do not necessarily care for the Mexican people they’re transporting,” said Hughes. “This isn’t a matter of racial profiling! These illegal aliens might think they are coming to this country for a better life. They’re not. These people are risking their own life!” Hughes explained.

But the border situation has become worse, with Mexican drug cartels often battling each other. Usually, innocent Mexicans were now becoming the victims…not only in the desert, but in their own suburban homes.

JR Smith of one of NSM’s newer units in North Texas says that his group is still considering following the path of his Arizona and California comrades. “They’ve got people being beheaded,” he says. “It’s worse than just illegals dying to get across the border now!”

“Many of us were expecting the Court to uphold more states’ rights, rather than to trample upon them.” Commander Schoep concluded. “Police now do have the recognized right to check the immigration status of potential illegal aliens. At least THAT is a significant victory in today’s liberal political climate.”

Although the ‘open borders’ crowd continues to demonize its opposition as being ‘racist,’ Schoep strongly disagrees with this weak argument. “It’s not ‘racist’ for anyone of any background to want control over their country’s borders,” he says. “It’s a matter of legal sovereignty and following recognized laws – something which may be ‘foreign’ to the Obama administration.”
When I took up this assignment to put focus onto the Mitford Sisters for an NSM Britannia publication, I thought...hey (or, ‘oi,’ as those English blokes say)...John says these are pretty, smart, witty and charming women. However, I found out that although they loved two countries (England and Germany), they espoused ONE belief, that of National Socialism.

As if a foreshadowing, Unity was conceived in the town of Swastika. Both sisters, Unity and Diana Mitford came from privileged backgrounds populated by governesses, beer barons, and a few real barons as well. Diana was a prominent and public supporter of National Socialism in Germany, and from 1936, a part of Hitler’s inner circle of friends and confidants for five years. A 1936 MI-5 intelligence report proclaimed Unity Mitford, "more Nazi than the Nazis." Following the declaration of World War II, Diana attempted suicide. Unity, however, seemed more the life of the party (pun intended), as she showed up at communist meetings upon occasion to heckle speakers with a ‘Roman salute.’

Later in 1933 during the Nuremberg Rally, Unity Mitford saw Hitler for the first time and became entranced. Ten months later, Hitler picked up Unity's bill in the Osteria Bavaria restaurant. Biographers suggest that after talking with her, Hitler was struck by Unity's curious connections to the Germanic culture including her middle name, Valkyrie. Mitford's grandfather, Algernon Freeman-Mitford, had been a friend of Richard Wagner, one of Hitler's idols, and had translated the works of Houston Stewart Chamberlain, another inspiration for Hitler.

Unity introduced her sister Diana to Hitler in March 1935. They returned again for the second rally later that year and were entertained as his guests at the 1935 rally. And in 1936, Hitler provided a Mercedes-Benz to chauffeur Diana to the Berlin Olympic Games.

Unity attended the Nazi Youth festival in Hesselberg, where she gave a speech against the Jews. She subsequently repeated these sentiments in Streicher's paper, Der Stürmer, which read: "The English have no notion of the Jewish danger. Our worst Jews work only behind the scenes. We think with joy of the day when we will be able to say England for the English!” Unity Mitford spoke up for her country and often pleaded with Hitler to make a deal with England. She even continued to discuss a possible German-British alliance with Hitler.

"She told me that if there was a war...that she would kill herself, because she couldn’t bear to live and see these two countries tearing each other to pieces, both of which she loved." True to her despair, Unity Mitford went to the English Garden in Munich, took a pearl-handled pistol, given to her by Hitler for protection, and shot herself in the head. Surviving the suicide attempt she was hospitalized in Munich, where she was visited by Hitler, despite the on-going war. He paid her bills and arranged for her return home.

Lady Diana Mosley’s eventual politically-motivated prison time failed to disturb her approach to life; she remarked in her later years that she never grew fraises des bois that tasted as good as those she had cultivated in the prison garden. Though prison was not something she would have chosen, she said, "It was still lovely to wake up in the morning and feel that one was lovely," when she compared her lot to the other women incarcerated at Holloway. She spent her later life as a widely-sought literary editor (specializing in autobiographical and biographical accounts), similar to Jackie Kennedy, wife of assassinated American president, John F. Kennedy.

MI5 documents released in 2002 described Lady Mosley and her political leanings. "Diana Mosley, wife of Sir Oswald Mosley, is reported on the 'best authority', that of her family and intimate circle, to be a public danger at the present time. Is said to be far cleverer and more dangerous than her husband and will stick at nothing to achieve her ambitions. She is wildly ambitious." According to her obituary in the Daily Telegraph, a diamond swastika was among Diana’s jewels.

It’s a shame that probably none of us got to meet this are charming, smart, witty, beautiful AND politically savvy National Socialist women. From what I’ve read of them, it would have been a great time!
As most of you are aware, we have upgraded the software on the New Saxon site, which has lead to some extra features and a more modern look. The software upgrade was needed to better secure the site against all hacker attempts, and contains all the latest security upgrades that are important. This is one of our foremost concerns.

The new software has one glitch/minor malfunction that some of you may have already noticed. The profanity filter is over acting which means if you use swear/curse words on the site, the site software has been banning the people using profanity, and then you must email the staff to get your accounts un-banned. The swear filter is even doing this in private messages, therefore UNTIL the software makers are able to figure out how to fix this minor problem, we are asking everyone not to swear or use profanity anywhere on the site. Yes, we know its not elementary school, or church, but it’s a really minor inconvenience, and it should not be too difficult not to swear.

If anyone slips up and is auto-banned by the software glitch, simply contact the staff and we will get you un-banned without any problem. We hope to have this matter fixed in the near future, and that you continue to enjoy the best White’s Only Social Networking site on the net!

As you are all aware, New Saxon has not been very aggressive in raising funds, or asking the members for donations to maintain the site. Other large forums sometimes raise thousands of dollars a MONTH to keep their sites online, whereas very small forums/sites cost very little to maintain.

In the early days of New Saxon there was on-going fundraising to maintain the site, which was greatly needed to keep the site alive, and online. We rarely mention the need for funding, however the reality of the situation is we need the members of the site whom can afford to contribute to step up now and assist us to keep the site online. The Recession has taken its toll on the American economy, and New Saxon could really use your help now!

Make a single open donation via nsm88records.com. Or mail a check, or money order to: NSM88 Records LLC Dept. NSX PO Box 13768, Detroit, MI. 48213 USA. Thank you in advance for your continued and ongoing support for New Saxon & our sponsors!
NSM RALLY IN FRANKFORT
By Sergei M.

Go sit in a deep freezer while someone sprays ice water on you with a garden hose. You'll get the basic idea of the weather for the NSM Frankfort rally. We all got up early and I was disheartened to see the weather taking such an awful turn. Who would want to leave the house to go to the store on a day like that, much less go stand outside for a couple of hours? I knew this was a stroke of bad luck that doomed political rallies all over the country from time to time, regardless of politics and support. Regardless of what the civil rights pimps tell their followers, nobody can control the weather. To myself, I thought, maybe 30 people will show up. This is going to be bad. Everybody still went through the ritual of collecting gear and making sure uniforms were in order. I and a few others headed out to the meeting point for supporters. Wary, we remembered how at one event the support meet-up became the scene of another failed communist attack. Maybe all the luck would be on their side today? The closer we got, the more I hoped the communist attacked. Though a non-violent organization, direct physical combat with the enemy is a welcome event in our lives.

One person waited in the parking lot of the closed and abandoned Home Depot. He walked up and introduced himself, a Klansman. Though glad to see at least one person braved the weather to come out, it was a disappointment. No commies to fight and one supporter to stand with us in the freezing rain. "We've got more people on the way," he said as he stood there in jeans in a tee shirt (obviously a tough individual).
The rain danced around almost like snow on the breeze as another truck showed up. Then another truck arrived and then two vans. Before long, around 30 people had collected at the meet up point. Everyone was in good spirits as the Klan began suiting up. Things had definitely taken a turn for the better. Around 1:30, we all headed out for the busses that would take us to the capitol building. The only problem was, there were too many of us and two busses weren’t going to fit everybody. Apparently, there was a caravan of people who were running late too. Having too many people for an event is a problem you want to have.

We finally had no choice but to leave. The missing caravan of 20 or so people ended up having to go into the crowd of around 50 spectators and protesters. Happily, there were already supports in the spectator section, even carrying White Pride World Wide flags. Nice!

We formed up after disembarking and began to march on the capitol building. "Whose streets?" was the main chant as we marched. The formation was great and would have got the nod from most any DI at Fort Stewart. This is always impressive when it works out because normally a third or better at any rally or march has any military experience.

The counter-protesters were a pitiful lot. Most seemed to be the boilerplate, rabid, anti-white liberals, along with the local Jewish supremacists and their pets. The protesters were well outnumbered and of all the events I’ve been too, it was one of the smallest herds I’d ever seen. I thought to myself as the sun shown through the clouds and the wind died down, maybe we’re seeing them finally on the decline? One of the points to any rally is to draw protesters and demonstrate to the public what the opposition sounds like and looks like.

This has always been one of the most effective means of gathering support. The problem was that their small numbers would mean they were less brave and less likely to act out. Instead, it was just a lot of hot air against whites, Jewish supremacist dogma and profanities hurled in our direction.

But times are changing and people are becoming more and more familiar with the anti-white (also called anti-racist) cause. They gather far less sympathy from the public than they did 4 years ago now that their true agenda is becoming better known. More people can identify Jewish Supremacy as well now and at bare minimum, most want to disassociate themselves with such an anti-white, supremacist set of view points. At one time, the Jewish Supremacists would have been able to goad half of Frankfort to come out and stand with them against us. Not anymore. Can you say, "never again"?
Obviously, one thing besides president Obama that has hurt the anti-white cause is the recent fiasco in the media which have led people to actually question their motives. The failed Occupy-Movement showed the ineffectiveness of modern Marxist doctrine due to the fact that they were unable to name the Jew's role in the economic enslavement of America. The events in Sanford Florida are one such recent episode. This was involuntarily an underlining theme of the rally. Though the neighborhood watch captain, George Zimmerman, was not even nominally white, anti-white rage has been rampant against the American population. The rally in Frankfort was an example of that.

The speakers were excellent. Regardless of who it was speaking, it was something new and interesting each and every time. Sean McBride was the best one in my opinion. His speech started out slow and even keeled, mostly talking about his experiences as a school teacher. His speeches are frequently about his times as an educator, times he seems most proud of. Sean puts a value on knowledge above all else, I have gathered, and the best spent years of his life has been sharing what he knows with his fellow man. However, when a Jewish Supremacist in the crowd shouted a comment through a megaphone about America, Sean’s mood changed.

"I fought for this country in Korea! I have more a right to call myself an American than any of you!" he shouted back. The old soldier in Captain McBride came out. I felt good to be standing near a symbol of the ongoing war between communism and the spirit of human will.

The Klan gave excellent speeches and we were glad they had come to join us. In all there were around 100 people standing with us on the capitol steps while we estimated that around half the people in the spectator section were our supporters. We wrapped it up and headed back as the little crowd of protestors, sounding like a small town playground instead of an extra-legal tool of the anti-white police state, dispersed.

The after party’s food was excellent! There were lots of neat items for sale from NSM88 Records as well as different individuals selling memorabilia and antiques. I really like how people use the after parties as an opportunity to have a nationalist swap meet. Some more talks were given, mostly on the subject of international projects, and border issues. This evolution of the pro-white movement gives us a lot of hope in the face of the defeatists.

In all, the rally was much better than we expected, largely in part to the NSM Kentucky unit as well as the Loyal Knights of the KKK. Thank you all for sharing the rays of sunshine, drying up the lies of the ‘evil few,’ and shedding light on the New Dark Ages.
Stephen A. Nuño, Ph.D., is an NBC Latino contributor and an Assistant Professor in the Department of Politics and International Affairs at Northern Arizona University. In an August 8, 2012 NBC Latino article, he suggested that whites should be profiled, and that openly white nationalists should be put into internment camps (http://nbclatino.com/2012/08/06/opinion-why-dont-we-profile-white-nationalists/). Here is a short excerpt:

“...white folks... would be proud to be pulled over...questioning their status.... [And though] white nationalists make up a...fraction of the...population...[they]...are able to move about freely...because of what they look like...How many more good Americans have to die before we take these white nationalists seriously? ...before I am accused of being serious, I am not. But given the arguments coming from conservatives...it's curious...the same argument isn't being applied to white nationalists.”

To many people (white or otherwise) this article will be read for what it likely is -- a calculated propaganda mini-campaign. Under the guise of academic discourse, Nuño seems to be making generalized suggestions that all whites are as evil as the psychotic few who have committed such insane attacks on ethnic minorities.

It is one thing to eloquently satirize social issues, as did the English writer, Jonathan Swift, in “A Modest Proposal” (“A young healthy child well nursed, is, at a year old, a most delicious nourishing and wholesome food, whether stewed, roasted, baked, or boiled; and I make no doubt that it will equally serve in a fricassee, or a ragout.”) However, even though he claims not to be serious, Nuño’s own modest proposal could easily be misinterpreted by some of less academic awareness. Further, the article seems to exploit what marginal amount of anti-white suspicion there might be among a small fraction of the population. Certainly no one in America would suggest Professor Nuño’s views be stifled, but conversely, it has likewise been recognized that one does not yell, “fire,” in a crowded theatre, nor throw gasoline on still smoldering social ‘flames.
Sergeant John Mitchell of NSM Britannia announced that his unit is backing a global anti-war initiative aimed at stopping Whites from being drawn into wars against each other.

The effort is called No More Brothers Wars. “While I would not consider everyone to be my ‘brother,’ I think we all agree that exploitative wars are a waste – especially for Whites who have been conned into fighting wars for other countries,” Sergeant Mitchell explained.

Various predominantly White countries around the world have been lead into fighting wars (or providing significant funding) on behalf of other countries and interests. This tragically pits White brother against White brother in many parts of the world. Additionally, many of these wars have and are ironically being fought against among countries having little if any stated economic or political strife between them initially. The No More Brothers Wars campaign seeks the discontinuance of such meaningless wars through public investigations, forced international mediation, and conflict resolution.

According to Sergeant Mitchell, “We could make immediate accusations as to who is motivating many of these ‘brothers’ wars. Instead, we want the ‘court of public opinion’ to become aware of these shameful debacles. Right now, it doesn’t matter which country is motivating what other countries to fight others on their behalf,” says Mitchell, who adds “They know who they are. And they will be held accountable. We want the wars being fought among White brothers to stop!”
From the dawn of prehistory to the present, a strong, magnificent, and noble race of mankind has existed, and thrived. From the emergence of the Homo sapiens in the Paleolithic Age, a unique and distinct racial group evolved. These prehistoric people began to populate, forming into clans, then migrating, sometimes forming into tribal confederations; building kingdoms, nations, and advanced civilizations.

Life was extremely difficult in the ancient world, and this ethnic group of man (like all others), had to become accustomed to a harsh environment in order to survive. From being mere hunter-gatherers, this race of people evolved, learning to become farmers, healers, traders, artists, merchants, builders, sailors, blacksmiths, inventors, adventurers, warriors, and so on.

Today as well, because of the utmost fortitude, a strong instinct for self-preservation, and supreme strength of will and determination—as well as ethnic harmony, unity, and cohesion—these people thrive. They have survived and triumphed in spite of thousands of years of brutal wars (many fratricidal), and often waged against them; sometimes with entire tribes being decimated or completely annihilated. The remaining fragments requiring to assimilate into neighboring tribes was used as a means of finding sanctuary, although, in some cases forever losing their original tribal distinction.

They survived the invasion of the Asiatic Huns who ruthlessly slaughtered thousands, and displaced hundreds of thousands more from their ancestral homelands, only to be subjected in later centuries to the onslaught of Genghis Khan and his Mongol hordes. They also survived the fierce North African Moors, Magyars from the steppes of Asia; as well as the Bubonic Plague (known as the Black Death from the black patches on the skin of its victims), that swept through their homelands in the Middle Ages, killing millions.

This particular, and distinct, racial group of man is known as Indo-European (sometimes also referred to as Aryan). Their human racial-classification falls under the category of Caucasoid, being so distinguished by their fair complexions, physical, and behavioral traits; and that have been determined by means of anthropological science.

Science tells us that within this ethnic grouping exist various branches, or sub-races. These include: the East Baltic, Alpine, Dinaric, Mediterranean, and Nordic, respectively. When one speaks of Germanic, Celtic, or Slavic, these are generally terms that form specific linguistic and national groups, as opposed to actual racial groups. For example, Germanic is a branch of the Indo-European language family that comprises English, German, Dutch, Afrikaans, Flemish, the Scandinavian languages, etc.

Europeans are well known for their ability to excel in the fields of art, architecture, music, literature, philosophy, medicine, science, and technology. As well, the European inclination is to bring order and harmony out of disorder and chaos. As such, Europeans have given the world a higher sense of morality, civic duty, judicial, social, political, and economic systems. Europeans take a great deal of pride in their outstanding achievements.

European literature abounds with heroic legends and folk tales. From the Icelandic sagas and stories of ‘Viking’ gods and goddesses (such as Odin, Thor, and Freya), to Siegfried the dragon-slayer of the German epic-saga, Niebelung, which the great composer Richard Wagner (pronounced: vog-nuh') based his operatic Ring cycle. From the Anglo-Saxon chronicles and the epic Beowulf, to the Irish Mabinogian, the great epics of the Odyssey, Enid, and Iliad of the Classical World; to the many tomes of philosophy that have shaped the thinking of Western Civilization, and gave birth to its political ideologies and complex social institutions.

Continental Europe is the home of a vast array of diverse nationalities and rich culture which we have been so fortunately enriched by, even here in the U.S. and Canada; countries that were settled by European immigrants who brought with them established standards of moral conduct and other important ethnic traits and traditions, such as the great importance placed on good citizenship, hard work, social-consciousness, and family values, to name a few.

Those of European descent should highly value their heritage and ancestry, even above life itself. To love, honor, and protect — that of which you are inseparably bound to by blood, your genetic inheritance—is the most noble of traits.

One should have the highest degree of pride in the glorious and noble legacy of European ancestry that they have so fortunately inherited, doing nothing whatsoever to undermine, or defile it. Study diligently and learn all you can about this wonderful heritage that is worthy of the highest sense of pride, that you may cherish, love, honor, and protect it always, gratefully partaking of our wonderful cultural traditions, and proudly passing it down to future generations.

White Power is the degree of socio-political might that White people, collectively, are in possession of, and/or exercise control over, as well as the level or degree of power necessary to ensure the preservation of the White race, its survival and advancement: the origins, or that of which creates or causes said power, such as the genetic predisposition and moral, spiritual, cultural greatness in people of European descent.

An advocate or proponent of White Power as an ideology is one who believes that Whites should be in control, or exercise authority over all facets of society, government, and economy; who lives a life in accordance to the values that are inherent in, and characteristic of the White race, and is very dedicated, and involves themselves in political activism, or other services for the furtherance of these beliefs.

White Power beliefs and ideals are anything that, by their very nature are conducive to, and in accordance with achieving the interests and objectives of White Power -- that which is good for the White race, i.e., its safety, preservation, and advancement. These consist of the following, but are not limited to the goals of: safeguarding the purity of the bloodline, separate White living space, improvement of the race via eugenics, martial virtues, physical fitness, working class values, military service, civic duty, social-consciousness, law-and-order, discipline, family values, and higher evolution, as well as obedience to Natural Law.

Only by the majority of the White masses mobilizing under a cooperative and harmonious banner of unity, and determination to fight for the interests, ideals, and objectives of White Power, will we prevail. Being under the boot-heel of those who seek our destruction (and/or the total elimination of ‘Whiteness’ -- ultimately translating into a state of full-blown submission), does not constitute survival and prosperity!

Needless to say, sitting on the sidelines will no longer suffice. The future of our race demands nothing less than full-blown effort, participation, and sacrifice. Our posterity is depending on us in the here and now to become involved and do our part. As such, the only way to ensure a safe and prosperous future for the White race is for us to fight for White Power.

It does not need to be stated, that the Aryan is strong willed. It has been because of this same will, determination, and fortitude that we have evolved, and achieved the greatest accomplishment s the world has ever borne witness to. These gifts have been bestowed upon us by the Gods! As the highest specie on the evolutionary ladder, we are also very spiritual beings. It is the Aryan that, first and foremost, showed mankind higher idealism, as a particular Aryan trait. Higher idealism means putting the welfare of the tribe, clan, or race above individual or selfish interests. Or putting it another way: idealism before egotism.

Tendencies towards excessive individualism, egotism, and selfish desires are to be brought to a level of subordination for the greater good of the race and nation (the Folk community). Our creature comforts are insignificant in the here and now, if we are incapable of saving our embattled Folk, which is now threatened on a global scale, like never before in history.

Aside from the overwhelming sociological dangers that we’re faced with (including the mass numbers of those hostile to our ideology), another enormous hurdle we have to overcome. These are the very things that undermine the Aryan concept of higher idealism that keeps us bound together.

Ponder for a moment on the significance of the old maxim, 'United We Stand, Divided We Fall.'
Likewise, consider an old military strategy that’s been used repeatedly by the victors of many vanquished foes: ‘Divide and Conquer.’ Hostile world governments and greedy (non-Aryan) businesses don’t even have to work all that hard at defeating us if we are busy doing it to ourselves. Consider how many fellow racialists do you have some personality conflict with, or terrible/awful/horrible disagreement that you have allowed divisiveness and dissension to drive you apart? Have you allowed your ego to be the driving force in these situations to keep from resolving the issue, or have you aggravated the situation when the other party was being irrational causing additional animosity? Have you truly exerted every effort to come to a resolution, or is some stubbornness preventing it?

We’ve all been guilty of this. But in coming to a deeper understanding, it has enabled me to work harder at my own interpersonal relationships within the movement—building unity and cohesion, as opposed to dissension, and division.

More often than not in human interactions, far too many things are merely dealt with on the surface, i.e., superficially. If those involved would only exert the necessary, patience, and honesty, and dig a little deeper, then they would get to the root of the problem and find out it was only a simple misunderstanding.

And while the concepts of humility and swallowing our pride may be repugnant to the proud Aryan warrior spirit, our willingness to sacrifice our selfish desires for the well-being of our Folk, is one of the hallmarks of our noble and mighty race. When we engage in bickering and petty disputes amongst our own, it expends valuable energy that we could be using for our struggle. It’s the same whether it’s pertaining to disputes between individuals, or between organizations, being harmful to the alliances we should have. ‘United We Stand, Divided We Fall.’

Under no circumstances whatsoever must we compromise our ideologies and forgive extreme violations, however minor disagreements must never create internal dissension, whether amongst our leadership, or the rank and file. It is a by-product of the human condition to have disagreements.

If it is a fellow racialist we disagree with, then we should, at the very least, go the extra mile to resolve it. And remember, debates and disagreements don't have to turn into arguments and hostilities. It’s an undisputed fact (and gross understatement) to say that we’re angry about the current plight of Western civilization. In fact, the word anger barely scratches the surface. However, let’s not take this anger and frustration out on the people that matter most in our struggle—our valuable racial comrades. Let’s go that extra mile to build—not tear down—but, build Aryan unity and solidarity. Learn to channel that anger and negative energy in order to build ourselves into undefeatable and invincible Aryan fighters, ubermensch that will drive our enemies who want our extinction into the sea. Where there is unity, there is an enormous degree of pride, where there is pride, there is strength. Remember, "ten thousand hearts one beat!" “Defeat Never, Victory Forever!”
Western civilization is being aggressively attacked by socialist governments around the world. What the communist disease failed to achieve through Trotskyite mentality in the 20th century, neo-socialists of the 21st century -- exuding self-motivating political ambition and patronized by Jewish dollars -- achieve with ease. The Western world sleeps while third-world nations around the world pollute, corrupt and dismantle our pure way of thinking, living and procreating.

This is a disease not alone reserved for the United States, or the United Kingdom. It affects Europe en masse, as well as those Western nations like Australia, New Zealand and Canada, whose origins link back to colonialism. In fact, anywhere where there is a White culture and population, naive politicians tend to lull nations into a catatonic state. This not only fulfills the ambitions of their Jewish masters, but these traitors in elected office have sold their soul for the opportunity of feathering their own nest at the expense, and not just of a nation, but of a race to whom they expect homage through the ballot box.

In Australia, some of us regret the day that we ever unleashed Rupert Murdoch onto an unsuspecting Western world. His legacy, like tentacles seems to strangle the life out of continent after continent. The Jewish control of the media is a gormandizing monster. It is not satisfied with the ownership of the media in the U.S. it purchases, dismantles, but it also feasts itself on the body of its competition. There is no free press anywhere in the Western world anymore. Anyone who believes the media is unbiased, is either deluded or a fool.

In Australia, where 90% of the nation’s population lives in coastal cities, like Sydney, Melbourne, and Brisbane, 92% of all capital city newspapers are owned either by Murdoch, or the John Fairfax syndicate, both of which happen to be Jews.

In my opinion, Jews seem to have little overall respect for the White race. For them, we have outlived our usefulness. They manipulate, cajole, engage and when ready dispose of the black race at will. But until that day comes, the Asian, the African, the Indian, and all the non-white races, are used in a diabolical chess game by Jewish shylocks to dismantle our culture, denigrate and demean our heritage. The black horde is indoctrinated, and manipulated to physically intimidate, murder, rob, rape our women, in full knowledge, that some black lawyer or judge will view the defendant as ‘the victim.’

What started in the wake of the fall of the Weimar Republic has grown exponentially, lead by frustrated Trotskyite academics, who teach generation after generation that Stalin performed miracles in transforming Russia from an agrarian society into an age of technology. Meanwhile the vile tone of anything to do with National Socialism, is spawned like vomit from Jewish media. The Jew seems terrified of anyone who is defiant of their will to dominate.

National Socialism is the greatest living organism this world has ever known. Through the pages of "Mein Kamp," one sees not only the disease of the Jewishization of the western world, but the only way to deal with the process is to expose it, eject them from society, and prevent them from ever manipulating our cultured and pure western societies again.

Like an insidious leech sucking the life from a healthy body, the Jewish elite steal from every citizen of Western nations. They steal our voice, our identity, our language, our culture, our pride, and then finally, they unleash their dogs upon our women and children.

They will smile at you, speak civilly to you, they will trade with you, but they want nothing more than to watch your race, culture and heritage die before their eyes. And when the Aryan race no longer exists, they will claim the world as their own. Make no mistake about the intentions of the Jew; he was happy to send millions to their death with Aryan killing Aryan in two world wars. He is equally delighted when any resistance or threat to their ultimate objective -- world domination -- is crushed.

Almost 60 years after the fall of Berlin during World War 2 in 1945, the Jewish owned media were pumping out story after story about the ‘evils of National Socialism,’ and the foundation of this is ‘pure terror.’ Historically, their fear was that a resistance would rise like the phoenix from the ashes, and destroy their ambition. But how many times has the Jewish-controlled media revealed the impact of the 30 million Russians killed by the Georgian Stalin. The reason for this is that Jews promote Socialism. It works in their favor.

With the spread of the Jewish disease from New York to Russia in the early 20th Century, the Jews cunningly had one foot in the Communist boot, and the other in the capitalist boot. With control of both, they knew that no matter what happened, they couldn’t lose. They controlled both sides of the battlefield.

So while they spread myth, lies, and unsubstantiated psychobabble about their fate under National Socialism, the truth is that Jews are using the myth of the holocaust to hold the world to ransom. Their whole esprit de corps when facing the West is “You owe us, for letting us die in Europe.” It is political and economic blackmail, and they are the supreme masters in the art of deception. It is a well-known fact, that if you control what people read, you will control what they think, how they feel, and like robots, how they will act. This is the core of the Jewish mind; control; domination and destruction of all who oppose them.

While the West sleeps in its own apathy, the Jew is stealing your identity. He will not stop; he will not slow down. He will not be satisfied, until you, your wife, your children, and your parents are raped and murdered to such a degree, that ultimately, the western race, like the saber-tooth tiger of ancient times, becomes an extinct species. The time to act is today, not tomorrow, not next week, but right now.

This means responding to the Jewish attack through a coordinated and multi-faceted approach to organized political activity with strong and focused leadership. If we don’t act now, it will soon be too late to leave the Aryan Titanic, and with the ship we will disappear into the bleak oblivion.

This is not a game or illusion. It is fact. Today more than ever, the future of the White race demands that all Aryan brothers stand united, to fight the plague of Jew and hostile colored alike. The West belongs to the West. It was created by the West, inhabited by the West, made what it is through science and technology by the West.

Don’t let the invading disease of the Jew or the Black, steal your land, your rights, your heritage, language, religion, or your culture. Defy them. Preserve Western nations for the integrity of our proud race and the safe future of our children. If we don’t, the Anglo-European race will die aboard a cruise to historical oblivion!

Greetings and howdy to all White nationalists and NSM Party Members!

The great state of Texas is proud to announce that on Saturday, September 8 the NSM North Texas unit hosted a White Unity BBQ/Meeting. The event went better than expected, with about 20 people attending. We meet some good folk, made some life-long friends, and are uniting White groups in the area. The event was hosted by Stormtrooper Randy Smith Unit Leader, as well as Daniel L., and his wife, probate Kim. It’s all about unity among pro-White organizations. We’re nothing if we can’t unite and work as a team!

Thank you for all that have helped in the advancement of the NSM North Texas unit and to all that showed up to the BBQ. I look forward to working with these folks again, and the party will hear a lot from the Texas unit in the near future. NSM TEXAS – We’re loud and proud! This has been a whirlwind of events since you last read what I write here. Due to health issues with a comrade, I have been promoted to Director of NSM Media. However, while there is more work at times, I come to appreciate the work and dedication of my fellow producers, writers, photographers, editors, command staff, and the idiotic masses out there who give us something of which to be ‘creative’ with even more! You guys come up with some good stuff, too! You know, I’m sometimes glad that I do not have the ‘final word’, but am required to initiate discussions and collaborations. I imagine that even the famed Dr. Joseph Goebbels got frustrated once in a while when his boss asked him for something at the last minute, or something he didn't understand at first. I bet Leni Riefenstahl even ‘one-upped’ him a time or two as well. “Damn, zat Leni!” So, I must be in good company.

Of course, with the addition of White Pride America and America Awaken into NSM Media, we now have by my last calculations, quite a few local newsletters and internet groups, six internet video channels, two magazines, one streaming radio station. Not bad for one of the world’s premiere White Civil Rights groups!

By the way, although the affirmation of the major plank of Arizona’s SB 1070 by the United States Supreme Court may seem limited, but it is VERY important beginning. We are continuing our efforts along the lines of maintaining public focus on all the negative effects of illegal immigration. We are also branching onwards and outwards!

The irony is this is that we’re the only ones who could do all this...and some more! If you’re White, you probably already (and inwardly) know this manta – ‘Grace under pressure....dignity in the face of adversity.’ Go forth!
NSM Skinhead Division is available for National Socialists who feel a strong affinity for the White Race, but also for the skinhead way of life!
